

U.S. Asks Strong Atomic Safeguards

Wadsworth Addresses 81-Nation Meeting

Supports Proposed International A-Energy Agency

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States said today the proposed International Atomic Energy Agency can become the cornerstone of its global atomic-peace program if it is established with strong safeguards against diversion of nuclear materials to warlike uses.

Ambassador James J. Wadsworth told an 81-nation conference meeting here to approve a statute to govern the agency that the agency within a year should be "a going concern, actually at work making its vital contribution toward a peaceful and stable world."

Wadsworth, keynoting the conference with the first of a series of policy speeches from the major powers, carried the fight for strong safeguards directly to India whose announced position is that a strict code of controls might act as a "straitjacket" and hamper atomic development for peaceful purposes.

"In addition to the requirement that the statute empower the agency to promote peaceful uses of atomic energy," Wadsworth said, "it is indispensable that there be real assurance that the agency's activities will not further the use of atomic energy for military purposes and will not jeopardize health or safety. Atomic energy is uniquely dangerous as well as uniquely promising. The fuel for a reactor can be made into the explosive of a bomb; the radiation which cures can also kill."

"We recall that the Soviet Union originally took the view that to encourage peaceful development of atomic energy throughout the world would increase world insecurity by increasing the supply of materials from which nuclear weapons could be made. We are glad that they now hold, as we do, that the right solution is to apply adequate safeguards for peaceful development."

Wadsworth referred to the safeguards written into the proposed statute by a 12-nation negotiating conference in Washington last spring. He noted that the statute would permit the international agency to apply its safeguards to bilateral or multilateral agreements between governments, if the governments concerned requested it.

Find Body of Escaped Convict in Mississippi River

MENARD, Ill. (AP)—The body of a convict who drowned Thursday night after escaping from Menard State Prison was found today floating in the Mississippi river, three miles south of the prison.

Charles Long, 24, Lincoln, Ill., drowned as he and three other prisoners were trying to cross the river on a log.

Authorities said the body was found floating near the shore at a point where coal is loaded onto barges.

The three others were captured Friday at Blytheville, Ark.

Warden Ross Randolph said the three survivors, Paul Smith, 21, Oakland, Calif., Chauncey Bolin Jr., 23, Quincy, Ill., and Anthony Yurkitis, 46, Chicago, will be charged with larceny of a motor vehicle.

The warden said the men were seen at Blytheville getting out of a car stolen at Chester after the prison break.

Fire Destroys Tractor-Trailer Truck

PINCKNEYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Fire consumed a tractor-trailer truck loaded with cleaning fluid early today south of here.

The driver, Robert Borman, 23, Jackson, Miss., escaped injury. He estimated the loss at $20,000. He said he was forced off the highway by an oncoming car.

Eisenhower, On Anniversary of Heart Attack, Considers Self in Full Health

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower, on the first anniversary of the heart attack he suffered a year ago today, considers himself fully healthy and vigorous for a man of his age.

At 65—he'll be 66 on Oct. 14—Mr. Eisenhower harbors no thoughts of possible recurrence of either heart trouble or ileitis, the intestinal ailment for which he underwent an operation last June 9, persons closest to him report.

His physicians say the President is physically capable of undertaking any campaign chore or official burden that he would have tackled prior to his heart attack. Now Weigh: 172

Before the coronary thrombosis, Mr. Eisenhower weighed 178 pounds. After his ileitis operation he dropped to 158½ pounds. Officially, he is back to 172. That is the weight announced by Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, but some of the other White House staff members suspect that the Chief Executive may have gone a few pounds higher.

At any rate, his weight has reached the point where Mr. Eisenhower has had to resume a diet. He is now theoretically limited to 2,500 calories a day, although he may go over this on occasion at campaign picnics and banquets.

His physician, Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder, would like to see ceremonial eating held to a minimum, but this is not always possible for a man seeking reelection.

About the time Mr. Eisenhower turns 66 next month, he will undergo another full-scale physical examination. It will be conducted all or in part at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center here where Mr. Eisenhower has gone for previous checkups and where he underwent surgery for ileitis last June.

Results Promised Promptly

Hagerty promised that the results of the October examination would be made public shortly after the doctors complete their checks. Whether this will be done in a written report or through a press conference between the doctors and reporters remained to be seen.

Dr. Henry is Formally Installed 12th President of U. of Illinois

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—The University of Illinois today formally installed Dr. David Dodds Henry as its 12th president.

Henry, who has been serving as president since Sept. 1, 1955, said in his installation speech that "The primary distinguishing characteristic of the modern state university is the comprehensiveness of its program."

"The state university is broad in scope and will engage in any activity or service that has to do with the education of youth and adults or the advancement of knowledge," Henry said. "Its obligation is to serve the people in every educational way it can."

Henry was formally installed by Herbert B. Megraw, president of the university board of trustees, at ceremonies in George Huff Gymnasium.

Guests at the installation included Henry's wife, Sara, their son, David, 23, and the mothers of Henry and his wife.

Later in the day, Henry and his wife were feted at a reception and received greetings from state officials, faculty, alumni and student representatives, the Big Ten Conference and officials of other colleges and universities.

Henry, 50, succeeds Dr. Lloyd Morey, now state auditor, as president of the university. Morey retired.

Henry was executive vice chancellor of New York University for three years and before that president of Wayne University, Detroit, for seven years.

Earlier, he served in the State Department of Public Instruction in Michigan, and was on the faculties of Battle Creek College in Michigan and Pennsylvania State University.

A. T. Smith, 25, of Shawneetown Dies In Veterans Hospital

Andrew Thomas Smith, 25, son of Mrs. Fronia Smith of Shawneetown, died Sunday afternoon at the Veterans hospital in Marion.

The body is at the Wright funeral home in Shawneetown. Definite funeral plans await the arrival of a brother in Alaska.

Presidential Campaigners Drive For Votes of Old Folks, Farmers

By United Press
WASHINGTON (AP)—The third week of the presidential campaign opened today with drives to woo the votes of old folks and farmers.

Democratic presidential hopeful Adlai E. Stevenson made a special pitch to "our older citizens" in the first of a series of policy statements he plans to issue during the campaign.

Stevenson called for an old age program which would assure elder citizens their "accustomed standard of living" after retirement. Among other things, he proposed federally financed housing for the needy aged, possible increases in social security and old age benefits and a possible hospital insurance program for old folks.

The farmer, already the object of special campaign attention last week when both Stevenson and President Eisenhower addressed the National Plowing Contest at Newton, Iowa, gets more of the same this week.

Ike to Defend Program

Mr. Eisenhower will defend his administration's farm program from Democratic attacks when he speaks Tuesday at Bradley University in Peoria, Ill.

Sen. Estes Kefauver, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, planned a major farm address today at Mitchell, S. D. And Stevenson presumably will hit the farm issue also in his principal address of the day—a speech at the Oklahoma State Fair in Oklahoma City.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon was campaigning today in the Far West. He was scheduled to deliver an address before the Arizona Republican State Convention at Phoenix, followed by a flight to Salt Lake City.

Other political developments:

—Sen. George D. Aiken (Vt.), leading Republican farm spokesman in Congress, assailed Stevenson's charge in his Newton, Iowa, speech Saturday that Mr. Eisenhower has led the nation into a farm "depression." Aiken said Stevenson is trying to "create a farm depression by his gloom and doom approach" to farm problems.

—Nixon, it was learned, has reported confidentially to Republican National Headquarters that several GOP senatorial candidates in the West may win only if they get help through personal, on-the-spot appearances by Mr. Eisenhower.

The Edwardsville Chamber of Commerce initiated the project last spring because of what President George L. Moorman termed "a long-felt need for a more conveniently located college."

Moorman said no definite institution has been planned but the chamber is aiming toward a four-year branch of the university at Carbondale.

Main speakers at Tuesday's meeting will be Delyte W. Morris, president of the university. The Madison and St. Clair county business and civic leaders will meet at Sunset Hills Country Club.

Autos Delay Firemen on Call

Firemen rushed to the Elnora Tharp home at 1307 Largent street around 4:45 p. m. Saturday but Mrs. Bob Alexander, a neighbor, had extinguished the blaze with a garden hose by the time the truck had arrived in the extreme south part of the city.

Fire Chief L. G. Martin said an oil stove caught fire in the kitchen and that there was damage to the walls and ceilings around the stove. The house is owned by Mrs. Sam Ripperdan.

Chief Martin said that volunteer firemen, especially, experienced great difficulty in getting to the house because of the great number of autos that drove up to the scene. Some had to park and run two blocks, he said, adding that if the fire had been a bad one in which the firemen needed to lay a line, it would have been impossible because the fire truck was blocked off by the automobiles.

He pointed out that law prohibits the parking of automobiles in the same block after a fire breaks out—except for those of the volunteer firemen—and stated that although he had been lenient on the matter, he would be forced to have police issue tickets if the practice continues.

Security Council To Take Up Crisis

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United Nations Security Council meets Wednesday to take up the Suez Canal crisis—the result of an Anglo-French request which emphasized their differences with the United States in the dispute.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said in Washington he approved the French and British decision to ask U. N. action. But both the British and French press emphasized the fact he had wanted to wait until the Oct. 1 meeting of the Suez Canal users association.

French and British newspapers were sharply critical of what they called Dulles' delaying tactics, and French Premier Guy Mollet in a speech Sunday deplored the lack of "allied unity" in facing the crisis. He said Britain and France were of the same will.

The Wednesday meeting will be procedural—the Security Council will decide then whether to put the Suez crisis on the agenda. But it was considered almost certain the council would debate the issue next week.

Radar Operator Brings Jet to Safe Landing

MARION, Ill. (AP)—A radar operator at an unannounced station brought a jet trainer to a safe landing Sunday with only five minutes of fuel left at Williamson County Airport near here.

Two lieutenant colonels, Dave Harbour and Talmadge Cooper, were scheduled to land at Scott Air Force Base near Belleville for refueling. But a partial failure of the plane's electrical system threw off their compass and homing devices.

The radar operator picked up the plane on his screen and guided it to the airport by radio instructions.

The pilots were en route from Albuquerque, N. M., to Washington, D. C., airport officials said.

Mrs. Musgrave Arrives Home from Tour of Europe

Mrs. Mary Musgrave arrived home Saturday afternoon after having spent the past two months in Europe.

Mrs. Musgrave sailed from New York July 11 for Europe on the ship Italia and returned to the states by the TWA airlines. She was accompanied on the trip by her cousin, Miss Elsie Clannahan of Belleville.

The two women visited France, Germany, Netherlands, England, Scotland, Ireland, Italy, Switzerland and Bavaria. They spent some time with friends in London, The Netherlands and Dublin, Ireland. Mrs. Musgrave attended services at Westminster Abby in London.

She arrived in New York last Monday and has been visiting in Washington, D. C., with her niece and family, Mrs. R. W. Suter. Mrs. Suter is a member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington.

Raging Forest Fire Endangers Resort Area

Blaze Started When Jet Crashes In California

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—More than 1,000 fire fighters battled today to divert the path of a raging forest fire sweeping toward plush resorts in the San Bernardino Mountains.

No major injuries have been reported, but several firemen have suffered minor burns. Thousands of residents in the mountain resort area have been notified to leave on short notice if flames continued their present path.

Forestry officials said Sunday night the blaze was moving out of control along a three-mile front. They said it had gutted 5,000 acres of valuable watershed and still was blazing out of control.

Fire fighters Sunday attempted to keep the blaze confined to a non-populated area. But by Sunday night flames leaping as high as 300 feet crossed a "last ditch" fire line along the rim of the world highway.

The highway had been established as a main defense line for the Lake Arrowhead resort area. More than 50 persons were evacuated shortly before flames destroyed several cabins near Santa's Village and Crest Park.

Dick Johnson, federal fire service officer, declared the fire was "rapidly becoming a major disaster." State and civil defense agencies were ordered to stand by in case additional supplies and men were needed.

The fire was started Friday when a jet plane from George Air Force Base, Calif., crashed in Sand Creek Canyon. The pilot of the plane parachuted to safety shortly before the jet crashed and exploded, enveloping the area in flames.

Jordan Claims Amok Soldier Fires Into Israeli Crowd; Three Killed

JERUSALEM, Israel Sector (AP)—Jordan reported today that a soldier "rank amok" and fired a machinegun into an Israeli crowd, killing three persons and wounding 12, but Israel disputed the charges.

An Israeli source said evidence submitted by investigators showed the machinegun fire which mowed down delegates to an archeological congress came from "more than a single Jordanian soldier."

They said Jordan could hardly claim all the soldiers participating in the affray were "taken by madness."

Jordan told United Nations truce supervisors the soldier had been sent to a hospital for mental examination and promised to report later on the outcome of his mental tests.

Israeli authorities denied reports that any Americans were killed in the shooting which took place on "the hill of Evil Counsel" in the southern outskirts of Jerusalem, less than a mile from Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns' truce headquarters.

One of those killed was Job Pinkerfeld, a well-known author and expert on Jewish religious architecture. An hour before the shooting he had delivered a lecture on Jerusalem synagogues.

The other victims were Dr. Rudolf Rudberg, president of the Israel Dental Association, and Mrs. Haya Ram-Fogelsohn.

The party of 250 archeologists, students and foreign visitors were standing near the Ramat Rahel settlement in southern Jerusalem studying an excavation when the soldiers opened up on them with a Bren gun. The U. N. said the firing lasted less than a minute.

Storm Flossy Sideswipes New Orleans

Leaves Two Dead, 47 Clinging to Ships in the Gulf

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Hurricane Flossy left two dead and a trail of foundered ships in the Gulf today and thundered across open water in the direction of the Alabama-Florida coast with winds of 100 miles an hour.

At least 47 persons were clinging to ships or oil drilling rigs in the storm-tormented waters of the gulf. Flossy sideswiped New Orleans, 65 miles northwest of her middle, without causing major damage to the fun-loving old town.

The latest advisory on the hurricane, issued by the New Orleans Weather Bureau, placed Flossy's center 80 miles southwest of Pensacola, Fla. The howler was moving to the east-northeast at 12 miles an hour.

The year's sixth tropical hurricane drove thousands from their homes in Plaquemines Parish, the low finger pointed to the southeast on the Louisiana Coast, and in Mississippi.

One crew member drowned and another died, trying to save him when Flossy raked the motor vessel Carport. Eighteen men and two women rode out the storm on the ship 40 miles off the southern tip of Plaquemines.

The Weather Bureau predicted the main force of the blow would smack the coast between Pensacola and Apalachicola, Fla., this afternoon or tonight.

Winds and tides were expected to fall to near normal in Louisiana and Mississippi during the afternoon as the storm moved on.

One helicopter rescued 10 men off a Kerr-McGee rig 15 or 20 miles out in the Gulf of Mexico Sunday night but then ran low on fuel, leaving another 11 marooned at the height of the storm, their fate unknown.

But nine men aboard a drilling rig owned by the Union Oil Co. of California used a battery radio set to report they were safe.

The motor vessel Carport, reported in trouble with 18 men and 2 women aboard, radioed a crewman was drowned and another died trying to save him.

The hurricane roared across the delta with top winds of 80 miles an hour during the night, passing east of New Orleans.

Tides swept over Delta Flatlands south of New Orleans, causing critical floods in Jefferson Parish and threatened to overflow Lake Pontchartrain into a north New Orleans suburban area.

Approximately 1,149 persons were evacuated to Red Cross shelters in New Orleans.

All lowland residents from the lower Mississippi River eastward through the Mobile area were warned to move to higher ground to escape coastal tides.

Thousands of residents of the thinly populated delta had already fled their homes. Many of them gathered in relief centers in New Orleans and in smaller towns dotting the area.

Three Hurt When Auto Hits Tree

Three Evansville persons were injured early Sunday on Route 45 near Pauper crossing when their auto hit a tree. The group was en route to Anna because of a death.

Brought to Harrisburg hospital were Mrs. Walter Williamson, 75, Wesley H. Williamson, 49, and Walter E. Williamson, 52, all of Evansville. Walter E. Williamson was released after treatment and the others are still confined to the hospital.

Trust the Truth

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT
President Eisenhower understands well that if a system of government is truly strong it need not fear the competition of others.
That is why he urges that American schools teach the facts about communism, democracy's most vigorous rival.

He believes, obviously, that truth is on our side, that a full, fair look at both democracy and communism will lead young Americans unflinglingly to the choice of democracy.

More important, he clearly appreciates that their devotion to democracy will be deeply enhanced by their having had opportunity to compare it honestly with communism and other political systems.

This is one of the big points missed by those few among us who feel there is peril in teaching the facts of communism.

The way to win dedicated adherents to democracy is not to behave as if you feared its ability to stand up to other systems in a test of truth. The wise teaching of democracy does not consist of declaring flatly that it is wonderful and all other ways are bad.

The alert, questioning American youth wants better treatment than that. He has no wish to be a rubber stamp for anybody's views. He likes to believe that he can come to his own sound conclusions after hearing the facts.

As the President says: "Competition for men's minds begins when they are students. This is when they must be taught to discriminate between truth and falsehood."

Surely the average American student is willing to be taught how to make that distinction. But having been taught, he desires to make the actual choices himself, not to accept hand-me-down beliefs fashioned by others.

His right thus to decide for himself, even to reach conclusions which are wrong, is at the very heart of democracy's meaning.
Anyone who would deny him that privilege seeks to employ undemocratic methods to enforce a false notion of what democracy really is.

Says Mr. Eisenhower: "Our teachers are presented with a matchless opportunity to teach the truth freely."

Indeed they are. And by lending his moral leadership to a reaffirmation of that opportunity, the President may have helped to diminish what resistance still remains in this country to the teaching of democracy in the free, competitive market of political ideas.

The nuthatch is the only tree-climbing bird that climbs down the trunks of trees head first.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Nixon Had Priv to Agent Tailing Harold Stassen During The
"Dump-Dick" Drive: Nothing
Important Revealed In Life
Of Stassen; McCarthy's Close Friend Arranged To Have Stassen Tailed.

WASHINGTON — Only a few trusted henchmen know it, but a private agent was tailing Harold Stassen on behalf of Vice President Nixon during the "stop-Nixon" drive to see what he could find out about the man who organized it.

He didn't discover much, however, except that Stassen led a moral, humdrum life and didn't have much support for his drive to dump Nixon.

This unusual political espionage
was arranged by Vic Johnston, former right-hand man to Senator McCarthy and now staff director of the Republican Senatorial Campaign committee. Johnston hired James Walter, ex-investigator for the Senate Internal Security committee, to shadow Stassen. Walter posed as a free-lance newspaperman and turned in daily written reports. This column has seen his secret reports submitted from the first week in August.

On August 5, Walter cased Stassen's Washington headquarters at the Sheraton-Carlton Hotel and reported:

"Suite 616 is set up like an office with bed and living room furniture removed. This office also contained lists of delegates to the San Francisco convention.
Some of the names on some of the state lists had been scratched off while others had a penciled question mark opposite their names.
Despite Stassen's claims that a heavy volume of mail is arriving daily, the mail observed on Mrs. Coleman's desk (Stassen's secretary) was not in any great quantity and a quick rifle failed to reveal any checks or money orders."

FEW STASSEN FOLLOWERS

The gumshoe also kept watch
on another Stassen office and reported: "A most careful check has been kept . . . and not more than one or possibly two persons have been observed — other than the one full-time paid secretary —
as being active in the 1810 K
street office."

On August 7, Walter scribbled
his report in longhand: "Harold Stassen went to New York City again Tuesday afternoon. He was accompanied by L. Edison Mathis, Jr., Atlantic City, who is reported to be an investment banker
. . . I definitely learned about Stassen's New York trip through a telephone operator at the Carl-ton."

When Stassen transferred headquarters to San Francisco, his shadow was right behind him.

"Dear Vic," wrote Walter in a report to Johnston dated August 12, "I have confirmed reservation, United Airlines, Flight 705, leaving Washington at 12 noon Wednesday, August 15 . . . But where will I stay on arrival? Also, coming there as a free-lance writer, would it be possible to obtain press credentials for movability?"

In San Francisco, Walter submitted a detailed report, dated August 17, on Stassen's Ike-Herter
headquarters, explaining mysteriously: "I got a line on the Ike-Herter headquarters by a phone call made from an adjoining booth
by another young man from Washington."

SEGREGATED NEIGHBORHOOD

Next day, Johnston ordered Walter to check on some anti-Nixon propaganda that Stassen was reported circulating, namely,
that Nixon had signed a restricted covenant when he purchased his house in a restricted neighborhood.

The gumshoe later reported:
"With your reference about anti-
Nixon material in the Fairmont's
Garden Room, a thorough but discreet check was made and as of this writing, no such material has shown up there. Naturally I will continue my search for the reported anti-Nixon material—that he was living in a restricted neighborhood—but so far no such letter has appeared among the numerous places I personally contacted today."

Walter's report of August 20
told how Stassen tried to buy off a man with a "stop Stassen" button.

"Standing in front of Ike-Herter headquarters," wrote Nixon's spy,
"was a middle-aged man wearing a huge yellow button that read
'stop Stassen.' This same man, who said he lived in California but who said he had received the button from the New York delegation, quartered at the Sheraton-Palace, said that just this afternoon Stassen had offered him $20
for his button but that he had refused to sell."

Walter himself always wore an
"Ike-Herter" button to keep in right with the Stassen crowd.

"For effect," his reports frequently mention, "I naturally was wearing my Ike-Herter button."

Walter had trouble shadowing
Stassen when he went to greet President Eisenhower at the San Francisco airport.

"I had no kind of badge whatsoever to get through the security police lines," complained the private eye.

However, he managed to sneak close enough to observe significantly: "Stassen was not a member of the official White House party leaving the airport. He left in the same blue Chrysler sedan
in which I observed him leaving the St. Francis hotel Sunday morning."

Once, Walter got away with Stassen's copy of a letter to Convention Chairman Joe Martin, asking permission to address the convention.

"To reporters crowded around,
Stassen read what he said was a letter delivered today to permanent convention chairman Joseph W. Martin, Jr.," reported Nixon's spy. "Stassen said he had no additional copies to pass out, so I borrowed a copy he had in his possession with a promise to return same. I conveniently lost him in the crowd and kept the letter. The letter I obtained from Stassen is attached."

By August 21, the "dump-Nixon" drive had collapsed. The showing was abruptly called off. Walter was hustled out of town.

Thus ended the episode of Republican spying upon a Republican.

Note — Vic Johnston, who used to be top man in Sen. Joe McCar-thy's office, is the go-between for Nixon and McCarthy. It was in Johnston's office that Nixon met with McCarthy to discuss strategy on handling the investigation of Nixon's ex-campaign manager, Murray Chotiner.

There is an adage in India that when one man loves one woman,
and one woman loves one man,
the very angels in Heaven look down in envy. That was spoken

Phone Company To Establish Division Managers

The General Telephone Company
of Illinois is now in the process of establishing division managers throughout the company's six divisions, it was announced today by Burton W. Saunders, president.

Last November the Illinois Central Telephone Company with 29
exchanges, the largest being Clinton, and the Illinois Telephone company with 42 exchanges, the largest being Bloomington, became part of the General System. The officers of the General Telephone company of Illinois are now operating the Illinois Central Telephone Company and the Illinois Telephone Company. The three companies combined have a total of 309 exchanges serving over 800 communities in the state of Illinois. The establishment of division managers will result in further improved operations.

The headquarters for the six divisions will be as follows until further notice:

Eastern Division, Mt. Carmel;
Southern Division, Murphysboro;
West Central Division, Jacksonville;
East Central Division, Bloom-
ington.

To Permit Farmers to Cancel or Revise Soil Bank Agreements

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson announced today that farmers who violated 1956 soil bank contracts through "misunderstanding" will be allowed to cancel or revise their agreements.

Department officials estimated
"tens of thousands" of farmers will be affected in Iowa and Nebraska, and smaller numbers in most other states. They said they had "no idea" what the total would be.

The soil bank program, which went in effect last summer, provides payments to farmers who reduce acreage of surplus crops.

Officials said the decision will not call for any refunds of payments which began going to farmers early this month. Payments had been held back where local officials suspected contract violations, spokesmen here said.

Between 900,000 and 1,000,000
farmers signed acreage reserve contracts to reduce 1956 production of cotton, corn, wheat, peanuts, tobacco, and rice.

Their contracts called for total government payments of 261 million dollars.

Benson said the program was put in effect in such a hurry that many farmers did not understand their obligations under the soil bank contract.

Some farmers, he said, thought they could ignore the contract without any penalty except loss of the potential payment.

Actually, a department attorney explained, the contract requires the farmer to reduce his acreage even if he decides later he would rather not. If a farmer harvests a crop covered by an acreage reserve contract, he is subject to a penalty equal to 50 per cent of his payment.

Rich-Whip
RECIPES

SUGAR PLUM CAKE

1 cup butter, 2 cups sugar, 3/4 cups sifted all purpose flour, 1/4 tsp. salt, 3/4 tsp. baking powder (double acting), 8 egg whites, RICH-WHIP, 1 tsp. vanilla.
(All ingredients should be at room temperature) Cream butter well. Add sugar gradually, beating until light and fluffy. Add vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with 1 cup of liquid made of equal parts of RICH-WHIP and water. Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry, with rotary beater or electric mixer set at high speed. Fold beaten egg whites into batter. Pour into four round 9 in. layer cake pans one inch deep which have been lined on bottoms with greased waxed paper. Bake in moderate oven . . . 375 deg. about 15 minutes. If you have only two pans, remaining half of batter may stand while first two layers are baking. After removing from oven let stand for five minutes and then turn out on racks to cool. Spread this delightful frosting between layers and on top and sides:
8 egg yolks, 1/2 cup butter or margarine, 1 cup finely cut candied cherries, 1 tsp. imitation rum flavoring, 1 cup finely chopped nuts, 1 cup fresh shredded coconut, 1 cup finely chopped seeded raisins, 1/4 cups sugar—1/4 tsp. salt.

Beat egg yolks slightly, add sugar and butter, and cook in saucepan over medium heat, stirring constantly for about 5 minutes, or until sugar is dissolved and mixture is slightly thickened. Do not over-cook, or until egg yolks become scrambled in appearance. Mixture should remain almost transparent. Remove from heat and add remaining ingredients. Let stand until cold before spreading on cake.

FRANKLIN LEE WREN and his bride are shown following their marriage Saturday, Sept. 15, at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Rev. and Mrs. John Yuhus.

Miss Judith Carlene Hicks
and Franklin Lee Wren
Wed in Simple Ceremony

In a simple but impressive ceremony performed Saturday, Sept.
15, by the Rev. John Yuhus, pastor of the First General Baptist church, Miss Judith Carlene Hicks, daughter of Mrs. Eunice Hicks, 24 West Raymond, became the bride of Franklin Lee Wren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wren of Harrisburg.

The double ring service took place at 7 p. m. at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Rev.
and Mrs. Yuhus.

The bride wore a dress of pale blue nylon over white net designed princess style with a low V neckline and a full gathered skirt.

She wore a white hat and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Her only attendant was her cousin, Miss Norma Bramlet of Mt.
Carmel, who wore pink polished cotton complemented with black accessories. Her flowers were also white carnations.

Mrs. Hicks chose for her daughter's wedding a black sheath dress with black and white accessories,
and the bridegroom's mother wore navy linen with black accessories.
Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Harrisburg Township high school with the class of 1956 and is presently employed at Pankey's bakery.

The couple is now living at the home of his parents but after Oct.
7 will reside in their own home on Marshall street in Harrisburg.

Rumsey, Wilson Win Trip to Resort

Richard Rumsey and Charles G. Wilson, operators of the Standard service station at the Routes 45-13 intersection in East Harrisburg, have won themselves a trip to Osage Beach, Mo., and will leave tomorrow.

Their trip calls for three days at Pla-Port resort at Osage Beach, as delegates to the Atlas tire convention.

The local station is one of about 25 Standard stations in Illinois south of Decatur that won a trip for its operators for Atlas tire sales.

The Ambassador Bridge, connecting Detroit and Windsor, was opened in 1929. The 1,850-foot span runs one and a third miles between its U. S. and Canadian terminals.

The earthworm plays a most important part in keeping the soil continually fertile.

A. Fall Entry Black Beauty...

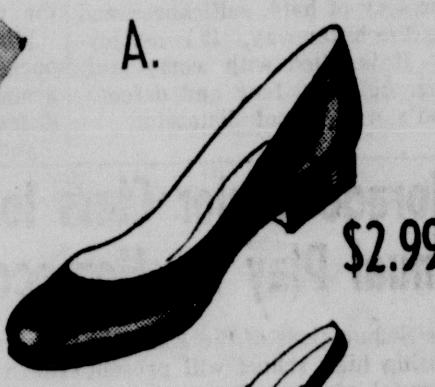

Fall's favorite entry in the fashion sweepstakes... this lovely young black beauty of a pump, beautifully crafted in Black Leather. It's the sort of shoe that goes to campus, concert or tea with equal good grace, because of its clean-cut lines.

B. Starry Magic for Magic Evenings

Rhinestone stars form a buckle for the loveliest of the new fall dress sandals. They're of black suede with slender high heel, nearly nude flattery and slim curving strap. Guaranteed to make evenings nicer.

C. The Pump Has Caught a Bow...

It looks like it's fashioned of moonbeams and glitter, the Lucite bow that's caught over the toe of this lovely lady-pump of dusky black nudesuede. The medium dress heel helps make it perfect for nice moments on your calendar.

Sees Rationing of Gasoline if Suez, Pipelines Blocked

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—The president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey said today that if access to both the Suez Canal and Near Eastern pipelines were blocked, this country might have to ration gasoline.

M. J. Rathbone said the United States could face "with reasonable equanimity" the loss of oil from either the Suez Canal or the pipelines—"but not both."

He said if the United States were forced to ration gas "obviously we would take it out of the place where it would do the least harm in the economy."

He said it would be necessary to convert from fuel oil to steam wherever possible. But "from there on, you would just get into the same question we had here during the last war—rationing of gasoline and heating oil."

Seven Shot Down By Algerian Rebels

ALGIERS (U.P.)—Rebel gunmen slipped into troop-filled Algiers today and in eight pre-breakfast attacks shot down seven persons before vanishing into the morning haze.

The eight shots rang out between 5:50 a. m. and 9 a. m. in various points of this capital city of 600,000. Only one rebel missed the mark.

None of the seven victims was killed but several were wounded seriously. Six of them were Europeans, including a French soldier. The seventh was a pro-French Moslem.

Murphysboro, Harrisburg, Norris City Win Opening Tourney Games

Romonosky Hurls One Hitter in Legion's 3-0 Win

Murphysboro downed McLeansboro, 10-6, Saturday night at the VFW park here, and Sunday the Harrisburg Legion blanked the Paducah, Ky., colored team, 3-0, and Norris City won a forfeit, 9-0, from Albion in first round games of the Harrisburg Invitational baseball tournament being played here.

John Romonosky hurred a one-hitter for the Legion in its victory. The Murphysboro Red Wings jumped on the McLeansboro Pirates in the first inning to score five runs and then they built up a 10-0 lead before the Pirates came to life in the sixth to score five times. Another rally by the Pirates in the ninth fell short as they could score only once.

Korando led Murphy's attack with two triples and a single. Mar-nati had a double and single, Heins, Crossin, Dobbs and Rains picked up single hits. C. Deitz and Kreher had two hits each to lead the Pirates' hitting and B. Deitz, Robinson, Harper, Stover, Beasley and Davis picked up single hits.

John Romonosky, pitching for Harrisburg, and Hartsfield, pitching for Paducah, hurled fine games with Romonosky and the Legion coming out on top, 3-0. Romonosky is the property of the St. Louis Cardinals, and the lefthander for Paducah is the property of the New York Giants.

The Legions scored its first run in the fourth on a long double by Ronnie Ziegler and a double by Bob Dallas. The Legion scored its final runs in the sixth when Griffith walked, Guley singled and Dallas sacrificed them to second and third and then Frank Logsdon singled them home.

Romonosky led the locals' 10-hit attack with three, Odle and Dallas had two each, and Ziegler, Guley and Logsdon had single hits.

The Legion topped the Norris City club, 9-2, in a six-inning game following the tournament tilt. Westphal, one of the University of Illinois pitchers, and Barney Bartnick pitched for Norris City, and the Legion touched them for 10 hits. Jones and Bartnick collected the only hits off Romonosky.

McNew, Guley and Romonosky had two hits each in this game with Guley, Dallas, Dailey and Griffith picking up the other hits.

Next Sunday the tourney will resume with Paducah playing McLeansboro at 1 p. m. and the Legion playing the Norris City Independents at 3:30. Murphysboro will play the winner of this game Sunday, Oct. 7 as Murphysboro drew a second round bye. The loser of the Norris City-Legion game will play the winner of the Paducah-McLeansboro game for third place.

Bears, Giants Top Teams in Exhibition Tilts

By United Press

The National Football League has ended its exhibition campaign and the results indicate the Chicago Bears and New York Giants will play for the 1956 championship Dec. 30 at Yankee Stadium.

But don't bet too heavily that it will work out that way. The NFL title has been won the past two years by the Cleveland Browns, a team that lost the bulk of its exhibitions before both those campaigns.

For what it's worth, here's how the 12 clubs fared in their 1956 pre-season contests:

Coach Paddy Driscoll's Bears led the Western Division teams with a 5-1 record. Coach Jim Lee Howell's Giants topped the Eastern Division clubs with a 4-2 mark. The Green Bay Packers (4-1) had the second best record among the Western Division teams while the Washington Redskins (3-3) had the second best mark among Eastern clubs.

The pre-season records of the other Western Division teams: Detroit Lions, 4-2; Baltimore Colts, 3-2; Los Angeles Rams, 3-3; San Francisco Forty-Niners, 3-3. The records of the other Eastern Division teams: Pittsburgh Steelers, 3-3; Philadelphia Eagles, 2-5; Chicago Cardinals, 1-5; Cleveland Browns, 1-5.

These records do not include Cleveland's victory over the College All-Stars or the Ram triumph over an armed forces squad. Despite their poor exhibition record, the Browns indicated Friday night at Chicago they will be ready to put up a fight for their seventh straight Eastern crown when the regular season begins Sunday. After dropping five straight warm-ups, Coach Paul Brown's huskies whipped the Bears, 24-14.

In the other final exhibition contests, the Giants walloped the Cardinals, 42-7; the Steelers defeated the Rams, last year's Western Division champions, 20-17; the Redskins edged the Lions, 19-17; and the Eagles defeated the Forty-Niners, 21-14.

Sunday's first league games: Bears vs. Colts at Baltimore; Browns vs. Cardinals at Chicago; Lions vs. Packers at Green Bay; Giants vs. Forty-Niners at San Francisco; Eagles vs. Rams at Los Angeles; Redskins vs. Steelers at Pittsburgh.

Ford to Start Series for Yanks

BOSTON (U)—Yankee Manager Casey Stengel said today that the "outstanding record" of southpaw Whitey Ford earned him the starting role in the World Series regardless of which National League team faces the junior league champs.

"Ford is my boy for the starting assignment. He has to be his fine, outstanding record this year certainly earns him the spot," said Stengel.

SIU Explodes In Final Half For 40 to 0 Win

Defeats Illinois Wesleyan Before 6,000 Grid Fans

CARBONDALE, Ill. (Special)—Pushed around and held scoreless during the first half, Southern Illinois University's grid team came to life during the last two quarters here Saturday night in one of SIU's greatest scoring explosions to sink Illinois Wesleyan, 40-0, before 6,000 stunned fans.

Wesleyan, unbeaten in five previous contests with SIU, commanded the game throughout the first quarter as Southern could muster only two weak rushing efforts while Wesleyan moved inside SIU's 10-yard line before losing the ball on a fumble. Early in the third quarter, however, the Salukis burst into life to score 40 points during the last 26 minutes of the game, including a thrilling last-minute touchdown.

Wesleyan, the pre-game favorite, had little success in stopping SIU's starting halfbacks, Ranette Lewis, East St. Louis, and Carver Shannon, Corinth, Miss., as the two compiled a total of 247 yards rushing.

Starting left tackle Gene Krolak, Chicago, who recently returned from the service, led Southern's defensive efforts with nine tackles and four assists. Other linemen who showed up well included newcomer and freshman Carl Teets, Elgin; center John Abramovitch, Haverhill, Mass.; guard Jim McCann, West Frankfort; and end Marion Rushing, Pinckneyville.

The big question mark on the Saluki squad was quarterback where no experienced help was available. However, first-stringer Bill Norwood, Centralia, turned in a creditable job and substitute Dave Wheeler, Chicago, tossed a touchdown pass in his only throwing effort.

Despite the good running of the SIU backs, Southern's fine defensive line play coupled with some excellent downfield blocking stole the spotlight.

Here's how Southern's last-half scoring barrage took place:

Touchdown 1. Norwood jumped over from the one after a long drive. Shannon kicked the extra point.

2. On a belly play around end, Shannon raced 30 yards for the score and then kicked the extra point.

3. On a handoff from Norwood, Lewis cut through left guard for 78 yards. The try for extra point was fumbled.

4. Shannon intercepted a pass on the Wesleyan 25 and raced for a touchdown. His extra point place kick was wide.

5. Wheeler passed 13 yards to end John Gehlsen, Sterling for a touchdown. Wheeler kicked the extra point.

6. With 35 seconds remaining, Tom Kilpatrick, Memphis, Tenn., grabbed a Wesleyan pass on the opposition's 30 and bulled his way through, falling across the goal line. Shannon's kick was good, making it an even 40.

Wesleyan was greatly hurt during the second half by the loss of the quarterback Ken Anderson, who received a broken ankle on a play early in the third quarter.

Opening Game Upsets Hit Notre Dame, Maryland, N. Carolina, Duke, Georgia

By United Press

The 1956 college football season still is an infant, but already "favorite" is a word used to scare coaches.

You can't blame the jittery tutors, either, in view of what happened to Notre Dame, Maryland, North Carolina, Duke, and Georgia on the first big Saturday of the season — emphatic defeats where victory had been confidently expected.

Another session like that this Saturday when eight of last year's top 10 teams will be in action, and the pre-season form sheet can be used for scrap paper.

Notre Dame's case could be a warning to all for the Irish, 13-point favorites, suffered their first opening game defeat in 22 years to Southern Methodist, 19-13, as junior Charley Arnold passed for one Mustang TD and ran to another.

Opportunity to Knock Twice for Dodgers Tonight To Take Lead in N. L. Race

By United Press

Opportunity knocks twice tonight for the Brooklyn Dodgers to take tactical command of a National League pennant race that's in "suspended animation" for 24 hours.

Even the official standings today don't present a clear picture of this craziest, most mixed-up of all races. They show the Milwaukee Braves leading the Dodgers by a half game but they don't show that the world champions need only three little putouts to make Sunday's suspended game with the Pittsburgh Pirates an 8-3 victory and go into first place by one point.

Then, the Dodgers would have the second opportunity — to beat the Pirates in the regularly-scheduled night game and go a half-game ahead of the Braves with the added advantage of having one more game to play than Milwaukee. That "extra game" is Brooklyn's protection tonight. The Dodgers would "remain" in second place by losing the regularly-scheduled game but still could make it up by winning the extra game on their schedule.

Clem Labine (9-6) is expected to pitch for the Dodgers in the regular game with Bob Friend (16-16) going for the Pirates. Friend has beaten the Dodgers three times this year and only last Thursday topped the Braves, 2-1.

Hodges Homers Twice

When—and there's always that wee little "if"—the Dodgers officially close out the suspended "victory," Don Newcombe will be credited with his 26th win of the season. The big right-hander was touched for eight hits but the Dodgers supported him with a 12-hit attack that included two homers and a single by Gil Hodges.

Bill Bruton smashed a grand slam homer and collected three other hits to lead the Braves to their 7-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Bob Buhl received credit for his 18th win although he needed help from Gene Conley for the last 1-3 innings.

The Cincinnati Redlegs, refusing to give up in the face of overwhelming odds, moved within a game and a half of first place when they beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-2 and 5-4. Ed Bailey's 10th-inning pinch-homer won the opener while a three-run homer by Gus Bell and Wally Post's 36th round-tripper powered the Redlegs to victory in the nightcap. Rookies Don Gross and Tom Acker were the winning pitchers.

The Redlegs' four homers raised their season total to 220—one short of the major league record held by the 1947 New York Giants.

Phillie Homer Record

Stan Lopata hit his 31st and 32nd homers to set a club record for a righthanded batter and Curt Simmons pitched a four-hitter to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 6-2 decision over the Giants in the other NL game.

Mickey Mantle singled as a pinch hitter and opened up a big lead over Ted Williams in the American league batting race as the New York Yankees downed the Boston Red Sox, 7-4. Mantle lifted his average to .355 while Williams, hitless in three tries, dipped to .3497.

Frank Lary became the Detroit Tigers' first 20-game winner since 1948 when he pitched a two-hitter to beat the Cleveland Indians, 11-1. The Tigers backed up Lary with a 19-hit attack to which Frank Bolling and Charley Maxwell contributed homers.

The Kansas City Athletics edged out Billy Pierce, 3-2, in their opener but the Chicago White Sox bounced back with a 5-1 triumph as Gerry Staley won his eighth game and the Baltimore Orioles clinched sixth place with a 6-0 verdict over the Washington Senators in other AL activity. Connie Johnson fanned nine to register his ninth win for the Orioles.

Gentlemen:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to your company for the prompt and efficient manner in which you have paid hospital and doctor bills for my family in the past four years.

I joined the Guarantee Trust health plan four years ago and the company has done everything they said they would do at all times. Also the doctors and hospitals have told me that this is one of the best plans a person could own.

I am well pleased and your company may use this letter in any way they see proper.

Sincerely,

Mary J. Holton
